REVOLUTION IS PLOTTED, SAYS CHANCELLOR

Bavaria Is Assisting Men Who Plan Downfall of Republican Government.

By FRANK E. MASON.

International News Service.
BERLIN, Sept. 16.—The flat charge that Bavaria is giving assistance and a haven to men who are plotting the downfall of the republican government was made by Chancellor Wirth today in an address to the Reichstag supervisory committee. It was the most bitter tirade against the Bavarians that has yet come from a member of the federal government.

The chancellor charged that the Bavarian authorities hindered the pursuit of the assassins of Dr. Mathias Erbsberger, leader of the Centrum party.

Chancellor Wirth supported his own remarks with a report compiled by Herr Weismann, commissioner of public safety. The commissioner alleged that Bavaria had furnished asylum for Colonel Bauer, Major Pabst, Captain Erhardt and other officers who figured in the Von Kapp revolution in Berlin in March, 1920.

The Bavarians, according to Commissioner Weismann, refused to arrest the men who were implicated in the Von Kapp plot against the Berlin government.

Herr Weismann even alleged that Captain Erhardt and Police Commissioner Poehner, of Munich, had become great friends and that the captain paid almost daily visits to the police official.

"The Munich police did what they could to prevent the capture of the men who killed Dr. Erbsberger," said Chancellor Wirth. "But the Bavarians should take warning. We shall not tolerate much further delay in abrogating martial law."

Irish Peace In Sight

Something like jubilation is reported from both London and Dublin at the turn the Irish negotiations are taking toward a peaceful settlement. They have "turned the corner," affirms the New York Herald's London correspondent, and the Dublin Freeman's Journal, the chief organ of Sinn Fein, hails the latest British note as falsifying the forecasts of the pessimists. "World opinion," as the Brooklyn Eagle sizes up the situation, now "prevents the Irish leaders from closing the door." In fact, however contrary may seem the claims of Lloyd George and De Valera, many observers see promise of an ultimate agreement in the fact that, as the San Francisco Chronicle puts it, "both have taken the utmost pains to leave the door open." Thus, when De Valera, on September 4, reiterated his "irrevocable" rejection of Great Britain's terms for an Irish settlement, he concluded with an offer to reopen negotiations on the basis of "the principle of government by consent of the governed," and the British Premier promptly named next Tuesday as the date for another conference. Lloyd George is quoted as saying that he hopes to sign the Irish agreement with the same pen with which he signed the Peace Treaty.

An instructive account of recent negotiations leading up to the present encouraging status of the ages-old Irish question is given in the leading article in this week's LITERARY DIGEST. It presents views from all angles.

Monday, Your Jack and Jill Will Be Tripping Off to School! Are they Ready?

A NEW school term demands so many things—little dresses and suits, stockings, hair ribbons and such, and getting ready has been the absorbing topic for weeks. Of course, this question has already been solved, by many mothers, but others have been so busy with the details of the home, that many things have been overlooked, so we are taking this means to suggest the complete readiness of our juvenile sections for the last-day rush.

There will be new merchandise and many special prices which will afford welcome economies

Girls' School Dresses

Fashioned For Style and Service.
Priced For Parents' Economy.

OF COURSE, Gingham lead, because Gingham is at the height of its vogue. Gingham washes and wears to utmost satisfaction—especially such Gingham as we insist upon being used in our selection. Note these and do your shopping early because school begins Monday and the girls must be ready. Plenty of Chambray, too, because Chambray really belongs to the Gingham family.
